Of Russian art, beauty & decadence

Russian artist Natalya Bronzova, in coordination with Peace Post under the leadership of founder Dr. Billy Chan, recently spearheaded the launch of the Russian Ball in the Philippines at the ballroom of One Shangri-La Place in Mandaluyong City. The launch coincided with Natalya's birthday celebration.

At the Russian Ball, which promotes Russian culture and art among Filipinos, Russian Ambassador Igor Khovaev bestowed a special award called the Bronze Butterfly to outstanding Filipinos who have contributed to the promotion of Russian culture in the Philippines.

Kudos to Natalya for this wonderful endeavor! *
