World Class Beauty Queens: Why did you choose to compete for your current title?

I did not look for it on purpose, it was one friend's idea sending me to the casting.

World Class Beauty Queens: To those unfamiliar with your pageant system please tell us what is it about?

Any Mrs pageant is more on your personality and achievements; the beauty is about 20% of it, the rest is who you are and how do you treat others around you.

World Class Beauty Queens: What are you being judged on during the competition?

We had dance competition, questions, kebaya, evening dress. And for 2 month we have to do video on each charity work, I did the best video, but bcz others was not completing theirs, it was not shown...

World Class Beauty Queens: Tell us about your platform or what cause do you volunteer for.

I'm founder of Russian ball in Asia pacific and VP of SINO PHIL-ASIA PEACE FOUNDATION INC. which actually awarding outstanding people for their great work for others. The main award is given during the Russian Ball which I do to promote the best of my native country to the World, particularly in Asia Pacific countries.

World Class Beauty Queens: What is your on stage strategy to win the judges over?

I smile, feel confident, move slowly, respond questions originally with sense of humour!

World Class Beauty Queens: What makes you stand out from all those other beautiful girls?

My personal achievements, my elegant manners and self uniqueness. Many times during high society events I heard that I stand out of any crowd, even of rich and famous. I know how to hold my back straight even if I don't feel it because of pain after a day spent on high heels! Many girls remove their high heels shoes behind of stage, but I never do it! I'd never show my tiredness nor discomfort as the real Queen. I learned it from great ladies such as Imelda Marcos.

World Class Beauty Queens: Tell us about the moment your name was called out as the winner.

I was 2d runner of Mrs. Malaysia Global Universe and truly feel that I was underestimated, maybe because I was the only European among Asian girls...

World Class Beauty Queens: How did competing in pageants helped your life?

It adds some new colours and sparkles to my life and I understood clearly the responsibilities comes with crown: you have to be ahead of others, you have to be unique and good to others. Even if I did not get the main crown it maybe makes me more unique and special. When your success in life much greater then the one of your judges... You should not expect much of recognition, so I just relaxed and enjoyed the whole process.

World Class Beauty Queens: How did pageants helped your selfesteem and body image?

I love myself and my body way before I went to the pageant. I see my body as God created masterpiece which I have to preserve in best health and look. I can't even think to spoil my body with fast food. I eat only healthy organic food, no bread, no sugar, no pasta, no rice, no alcohol, no meat. All this makes my biological age much less then my passport age.

World Class Beauty Queens: Any modeling or acting experience?

Yes I was model in Canada as well as actress, I became member of ACTRA and UDA acting unions of Canada. I was filmed even in "Aviator" with Leo Di Caprio, "Terminal" with Tom Hanks and in "World of trouble" with Idris Elba.

I'm preparing Queen's Ball to celebrate my Birthday in January 2019! I always celebrate my birthday very special with my diplomatic and celebrities friends as well as media. Its going to be classic performances, my art exhibition, awards and other fun things for my guests to remember!

World Class Beauty Queens: What kind of legacy do you want to leave behind?

My goal to be achieved is my Museum, with rooms for artists, where I will organize annual Art festivals with International artists to help them to promote their works. I know how artists need help and support. This I see as my Mission which I hope will be ongoing after me.
