RUSSIAN BALL 2019

Russian Beauty Queen, Artist & Writer Natalya Bronzova is a very unique gifted lady, who has many talents! She founded the Russian Ball to promote Russian culture and traditions to the Philippines society. During the Russian Ball, Natalya's gifted friends perform their talents for the audience.

The 2nd Russian Ball was held at Makati Shangri-La Isabella Ballroom on March 6th, 2019.

STARTING with Natalya's solo art exhibition and cocktail, Russian Ball continued with a flag parade of the guests from different countries. Many outstanding personalities were attending the event, to mention few: Senator Sherwin Gatchalian, Sec. of Health Francisco Duque, DTI USEC Abdulgani M. Macatoman, Dep. Speaker Congw. Linabelle R. Villarica, founder of the National Bookstore Socorro Ramos, Fema Duterte, Form. Ambassador Victor Garcia, President of Macau university Dr. Manson Fok, Chairman of Sino foundation Dr. Billy Chan and others.

During the Ball, the Sino Phil-Asia foundation awarded the Peace Award to international delegates. Classic orchestra and opera singer of the Philippines, rising stars, Kathy Hipolito Mas and Mike Austria entertained the guests! After an elegant dinner, the host of the Russian Ball, Natalya Bronzova, presented on stage the 1st historical mural on Russian-Philippines friendship, which she created in collaboration with famous Filipino artist, Pancho Piano. The idea of the Mural was born during 1st Russian ball in 2018.

Natalya's dress, from her own Royal design collection, was of lavender silk decorated with embroidered white organza and over 2000 pearls! This and the final fashion show of the "Gold Collection" of famous Filipina designer, Joyce Penas Pilarsky, made the event really sparkling glamorous! It was the first time this Joyce Pilarsky collection was shown in the Philippines, after her triumph at the London fashion week, where she won 1st Runner Up!

"Tremendous victory and great honor that Joyce agreed to show this famous collection at my Russian Ball and even trusted me to wear the final dress with 4m long tail! I'm happy of such great collaboration of Filipina designer and my beautiful Russian and Ukrainian friends as models! This made the Russian Ball great success!" said the host of the ball Natalya Bronzova.
